ACTIVITY/FIELD TRIPS

PERMISSION FORM

All students participating in athletics, activities, and/or field trips will travel with the group and stay with the group until the activity has been completed. Prior to the game or activity, the parent may sign a permission form for the student to return home with the parent or another authorized adult when the event is complete. Anyone other than the parent must show the coach a picture ID. The parent must hand carry this form directly to the coach/sponsor, in addition to signing the form and having the form notarized. High School athletes and/or parent(s) may pick up the official permission form in the Athletic Office. For all other activities, the form may be picked up in the principal's office.
