

What is Bonita Boosters?

Bonita Boosters is a group of volunteer parents and staff of Bonita High School with the primary purpose of supporting all of the boys and girls athletic programs and holding the funds for the various sports and other school programs. Through membership dues and fundraising efforts, Bonita Boosters provides the extras and sometimes the necessities for our school athletic programs, sports awards, scholarships and special requests from the coaches. The Bonita Boosters are open to all parents of Bonita High students. The continued support of parents, faculty and students substantially increases the strength and effectiveness of Bonita Boosters. Bonita Boosters does the following for the students and athletes at Bonita High School:

- Provides Support and Financial Assistance to our Athletic Training Department
- Holds monthly meetings to provide updates on the various athletic programs
- Executes financial transactions on behalf of all participating sports
- Helps facilitate communication between coaches, parents and the school
- Helps implement the BHS Athletic Code (Encouraging positive role models from coaches)
- Supports the athletic programs by raising funds, providing awards, and scholarships
- Provides annual allocation of funds to help sports purchase needed equipment
- Provides parents to sit in on coaches hiring panels
- Provides game support (scorekeepers)
- Supports Bonita's Beautification committee.
