

Sharyland Rattler Baseball Handbook

General Purpose of the Baseball Program:

1. To participate in the program and assist our team in winning a State Championship.
2. To become skilled enough to have an opportunity to college baseball.
3. To develop a sense of TEAM and a never quit attitude.

Coaches' Responsibility

1. To give every player an opportunity play baseball and help the varsity win a State Championship.
 - (What you do with that opportunity is up to you)
2. To give players the opportunity to play college ball.
 - Provide all scouts with player info.
 - Stats for media purposes.
 - Have seniors complete all paperwork for possible scholarships.

Team Polices

1. Appearance
 - Follow all dress code rules in all classes (You will be the example!)
 - Practice clothes will be worn every day in off-season. Red Shirt and grey shorts.
2. Class Attendance
 - If you are going to be absent from class or practice you need to make an attempt to notify a coach before 3th block. (bbickerton@sharylandisd.org) cell 956-330-0894 or school 956-580-5300 ext 1430 or through Remind
 - You will not use a class assignment as an excuse to miss class or practice. Prepare yourself, you have study hall every week, do not wait for the last minute and then miss practice.
3. Conduct on and Off the Field
 - You will be the example of all athletes at this school.
 - You must treat all school employees as you would the head baseball coach.
 - Smoking, drinking, or doing drugs will result in a suspension from the team. (18 weeks)
 - Repeated detentions or ISS will result in removal from the team.
 - Stealing of any kind will result in removal from the team.
 - Vaping will result in a 2 week suspension during season

Extra Duties

1. You will work on the field.
 - You will be assigned an area of the field (usually your position). Take pride in the field and set a goal to have the best field in the Valley.
 2. You will be asked to help in fund raising.
