

Rei Trujillo Athletic Scholarship

This Athletic Scholarship fund was created to honor Rei Trujillo of Lynbrook’s Class of 2021. She was a student who played sports throughout most of her life, karate, soccer and football. Rei played soccer since she was 7, played the striker position on her club team as well as on Lynbrook’s Varsity team. She was also fortunate to have been a kicker on Lynbrook’s JV and varsity football teams. Rei was known for her fun loving and vibrant way of life on campus and off.

This scholarship is intended to assist the individual attending an educational institution – a school that has a faculty, a student body, a physical location and a curriculum. It is for a public or private college/university/JC or a vocational/trade school.

The scholarship funds can be used to help pay for tuition, fees or room and board. Failure to use the scholarship for its designated intent will cause the scholarship to be forfeited, and repaid back to Lynbrook Athletic Boosters. The nomination of the scholarship recipient will be awarded by the Lynbrook Athletic Booster’s Scholarship Committee.
