Rule 15. Hardship Exceptions for Eligibility - Upon petition from a student's school administrator, the Executive Director is authorized to waive the requirements of all eligibility rules except the age rule if the school develops acceptable proof for such a waiver.

A. Residence/Transfer Exceptions -

1. After an investigation, a court of law has removed the student from his parents or guardians and subsequently assigned the student a place of residence.
2. The student is an orphan or there is no record of his parent's whereabouts.
3. The student's parents are out-of-state residents and the student is attending school in a school district where his parents maintain a legal residence (military, etc.).
4. The student's parent(s) have abrogated their responsibility toward him as parents.
5. The student's parent's employment requires absence from home a great portion of the time the student is home and have arranged residence with relatives or friends for the purpose of supervision.
6. The student is married and living with a spouse, having a parent with residence in school district, or a spouse who had an established residence in the district one year previous to the marriage.
7. A student, after having lived three continuous years at any time in his life as a bona fide member of a family, may establish the family heads as substitute parents with respect to the resident rule.
8. An extreme and unusual circumstance exists that is no fault of the student or his parents. If the need however, arises because of a parents' negligence this fact may be considered.

NOTE: Furthermore, the Executive Director is authorized to specify limitations or contingency conditions as needed when giving approvals, to insure that such student shall not be induced to another school district or played under the pretense of being eligible should his status change.

NOTE: The petition shall not be authorized if the Director obtains reliable information that the student is transferring to the petitioning school primarily for athletic purposes or as a result of inducement or recruitment.

B. Exception to other Eligibility Requirements

1. There has been an extreme and unusual circumstance that is no fault of the student, his parent, or his school that has prevented school attendance sufficient to cause that student to be in violation of the dropout rule or scholarship rule or the semester rule.
2. The student has been identified as being in need of special education or other special programs of study as authorized by the Arkansas Department of Education regulations, but is subsequently required by the school to participate in non-recommended courses.

NOTE: If negligence or irresponsibility on the part of the parent or school has a significant influence relative to the student being ineligible, such negligence or lack of responsibility may be considered.
