SOFTBALL

13-6 · 7-1 GWOC · L2 · Tied 1st w/ Springboro

Natalie Carr (Jr) broke the Centerville school record for single-season home runs this week, hitting her 11th. The previous record was 10. She is batting .636 — third in the GWOC — and is the anchor of the most productive lineup in the conference.

The Elks won four conference games this week — Fairmont twice (14-3, 11-1) and Wayne twice (7-3, 13-3). Two non-conference losses to Lebanon (0-7) and Kenton Ridge (2-12) on Saturday ended a six-game winning streak. The GWOC record stays 7-1, tied with Springboro. Caitlyn Belcher (So) holds a 2.10 ERA, tied fourth in the GWOC, and the team's 112 strikeouts lead the entire conference.

BOYS VOLLEYBALL

11-7 · 5-0 GWOC · Sole GWOC Leader

The Elks beat Fairmont on Thursday (25-22, 25-23, 23-25, 25-15) and moved to 5-0 in the GWOC — alone at the top. Beaver Creek is one game back at 4-1. No other team in the conference is within two games.

Sean Chaudhuri (Sr) leads the entire GWOC in kills (181). Richard Winters (Sr) leads in digs (191) and is tied second in aces (33). Caden Peterson (Sr) is second in assists (474) and fourth in aces (30). Adam Beeler (Sr) is tied second in kills (141). Grayson Roe (Sr) is fourth in blocks (33).

GIRLS LACROSSE

7-4 · 1-1 GWOC

A 15-16 non-conference loss at Mount Notre Dame on Thursday was the week's result of note. Springboro (2-0 GWOC) and Miamisburg (2-0 GWOC) lead the conference. Centerville sits at 1-1 with conference games against every team still to play.

Lucia Christofano (Jr) leads the entire GWOC in three simultaneous categories: goals (56), assists (36), and draw controls (68). The gap in goals is 16 over second place. Hannah Eggert (Sr) adds 28 goals (5th GWOC) and 41 draw controls (4th). Kara Bentley (Sr) is second in the GWOC in saves (96). Sofie Baldrige (Jr) is fifth in assists (9).
