Through a focus on “a galaxy far, far away”, campers will have the chance to become a Jedi Knight and a historian by learning how democracies become dictatorships with an emphasis on “The Galactic Republic” and Ancient Rome, examining the “Journey of the Hero” present in the Star Wars saga and in Ancient Greek mythology, and studying the ways in which totalitarian regimes like “The Empire”, Nazi Germany, and Fascist Italy thrived and fell. With a special focus on “The Empire Strikes Back” and “Rogue One”, campers will be divided into teams of The Empire and The Rebellion, competing in a variety of contests to earn glory and galactic conquest for their team.

Castles, and Sieges, and Legos: June 8-11 from 12:30PM-3:30PM - $165 per camper

Boys and Girls, Grades 3rd to 8th

Have you ever wondered what it was like to live in a Castle during the Middle Ages? Have you ever thought about what it would take to make the “perfect castle”, one that could resist any siege? Do you love to build and create with Legos and use your imagination? Now is your chance to put your modern knowledge to work. Through this camp, students will learn about life in a Medieval European castle, including the role of knights and chivalry, the work of peasants and serfs, the zeal of the Crusades, and different aspects of castle design and fortification. Students will learn building techniques related to the Medieval Age and Medieval Siegecraft using Legos, culminating in campers designing and building the “perfect” Lego castle.
