Tie Breaker Protocol

2-way tie - head to head

3-way tie - Head to head record among the teams in the tie, set % among the teams involved, followed by point %. If the 3-way tie has not been broken, then a comparison of set % of all matches in pool play, followed by point % of all matches in pool play. If a tie remains, a coin toss is used to determine the top seed available, and then the tie break process for the remaining two teams will revert to the results of the head to head matchup. In each step of the tie break process, if the step does not seed all three teams appropriately, leaving two teams still tied, the process will revert to the results of the head to head match up of the two remaining teams.
